

Steps in the MOC Process
What you should do	When/how
Activate your ABPN “folio” page.	Go to http://bit.ly/1ofAhwe . You will learn when your recertification is due.
Earn an average of 90 CMEs, 24 of which are “self-assessment” (SA) credits.	Every three years. Earn ‘regular’ CME credits and SA credits.
Complete one performance in practice (PIP) activity.	Every three years. Includes a “clinical” activity plus either patient or peer feedback.
Sign up for your written recertification test.	Required every 10 years. Sign up at least one year in advance.
Maintain your CME and PIP paperwork.	If you are audited, you will need to furnish evidence to ABPN that you have completed MOC requirements.

Source: TCPR, September 2014, Vol 12, Issue 9, Keeping up in Psychiatry