

Duty to Protect Options

Hospitalize the patient.	Warn the intended victim.
Warn the police.	Ask the patient to warn the intended victim.

Source: Knoll JL, CNS Spectr 2015;20(3):215–222

From the Expert Q&A:

“Tarasoff: Making Sense of the Duty to Warn or Protect” with Ahmad Adi, MD, MPH, & Victoria Hendrick, MD.

The Carlat Hospital Psychiatry Report, Volume 2, Issue 1&2 (Double), January/February/March 2022
www.thecarlatreport.com